LAST DAY
THE GRADUATE

Mrs. Turner ----- one of my favorite teacher (because I can relax doing nothing but talk), who helped me for my English project and lots of others. I really don't like talking much, but when you enter the classroom
~~the~~ you always make me feel glib. Anyways you helped me a lot to improve my speech during past years. So I'll say thank you for helping me.
With best wishes & happiness. Chang Yael

Mrs Turcoer

PREVIEWS

People,
People who need people,
Are the luckiest people
In the world.
Where children,
Needing other children,
And yet letting our
Grown-up pride
Hide all the need inside
Acting more like children
Than children.
Lovers,
Are very special people,
They're the luckiest people
In the world.
With one person,
One very special person,
A feeling deep in your soul
Says you're half,
Now you're whole.
No more hunger and thirst,
But first,
Be a person who needs people.

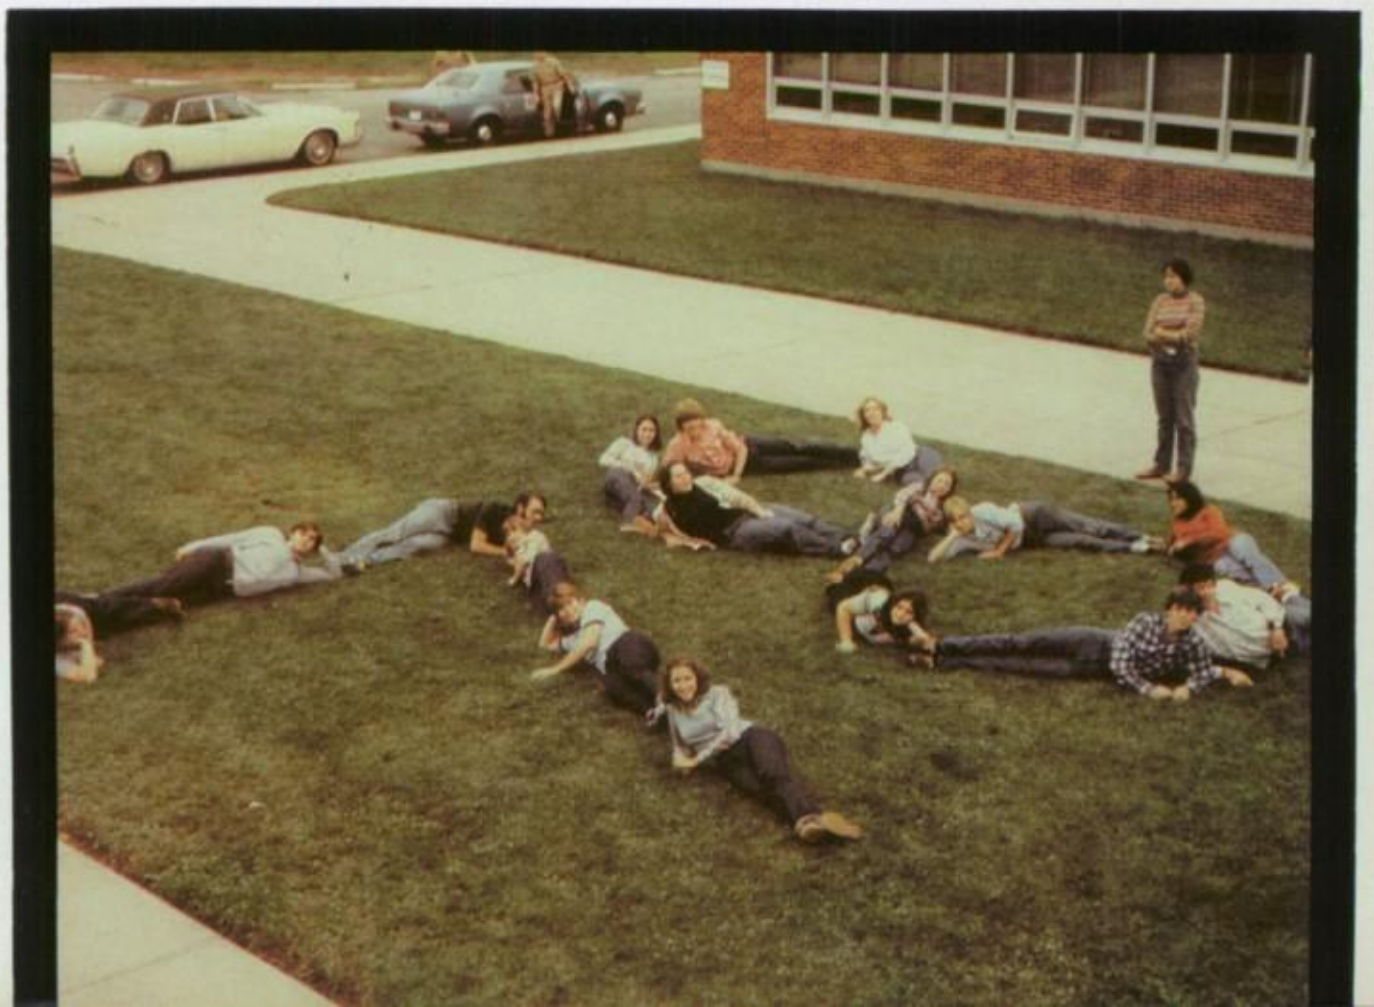

By J. Styne and B. Merrill

Wisdom is the principle thing: —
Therefore, get wisdom; and with all thy getting, get understanding.

— Proverbs IV, 7

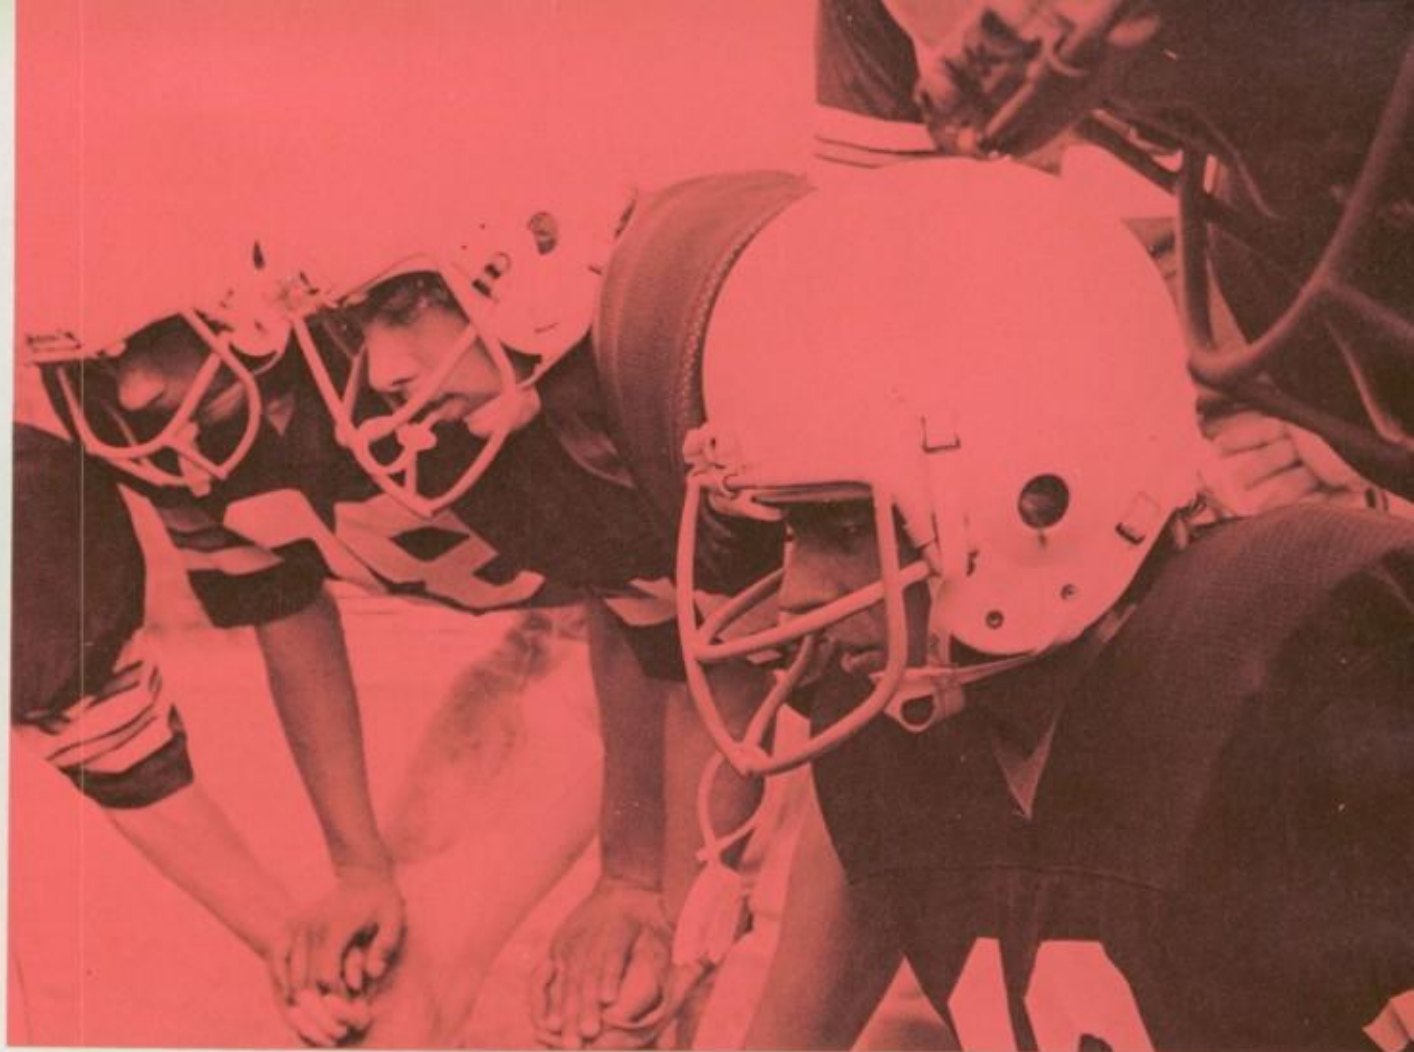

One sunny September afternoon, eighteen seniors stuffed themselves into a four passenger Pinto, much to the dismay of Mary Maloney. Then they all stretched out to dream about June of 1978. As they reached for the stars, they were truly united together — forever!!!

Life is a precious and wonderful thing. You can't save it; you can't store it up; you can't horde it in a vault. You've got to taste it to use it. The more you use, the more you have ... That's the miracle of it!

— Kyle Crichton

I wish I had a coat of silk,
the color of the sky.

I wish I had a lady fair,
as the butterfly.

I wish I had a house of stone,
that sat beside the sea.

But most of all I wish I were someone else but me.

Now, I don't have a coat of silk,
but I still have the sky.

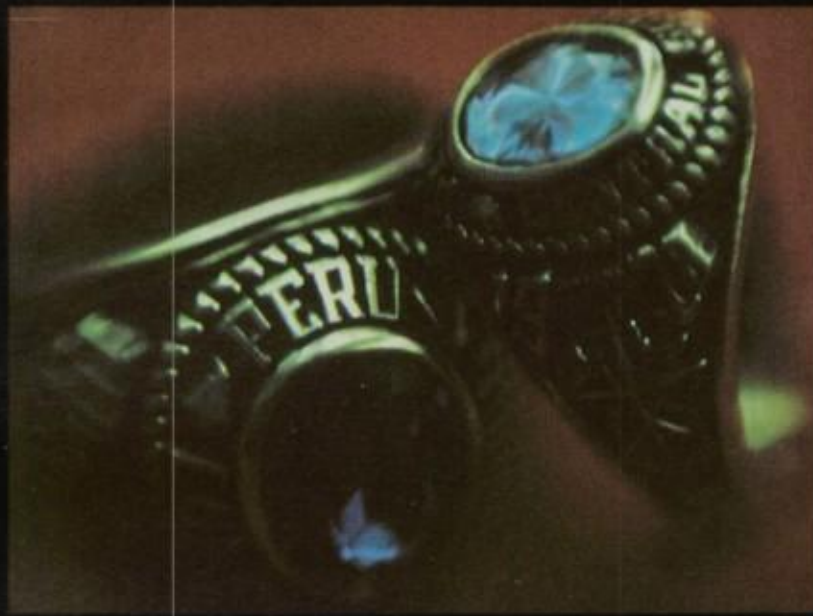

And I don't have a lady fair,
but look, there's a butterfly.

And I don't have a house of stone,
but I can see the sea.

But most of all I'm happy being me!

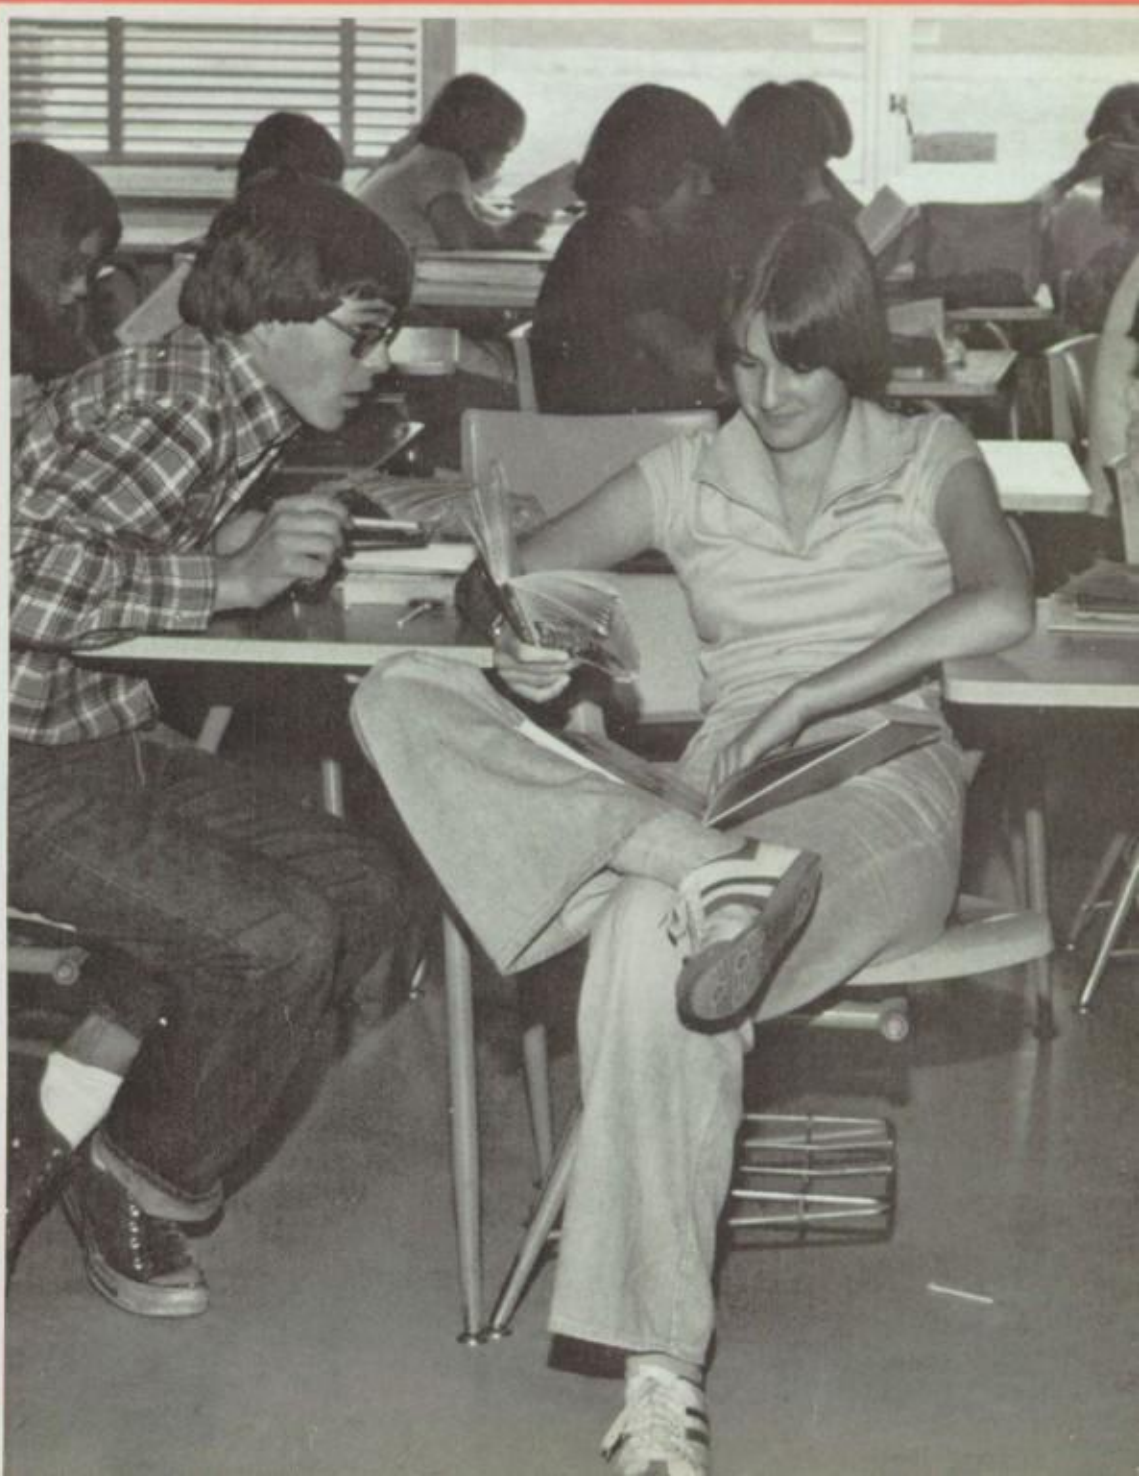

"The Great Gonzo"

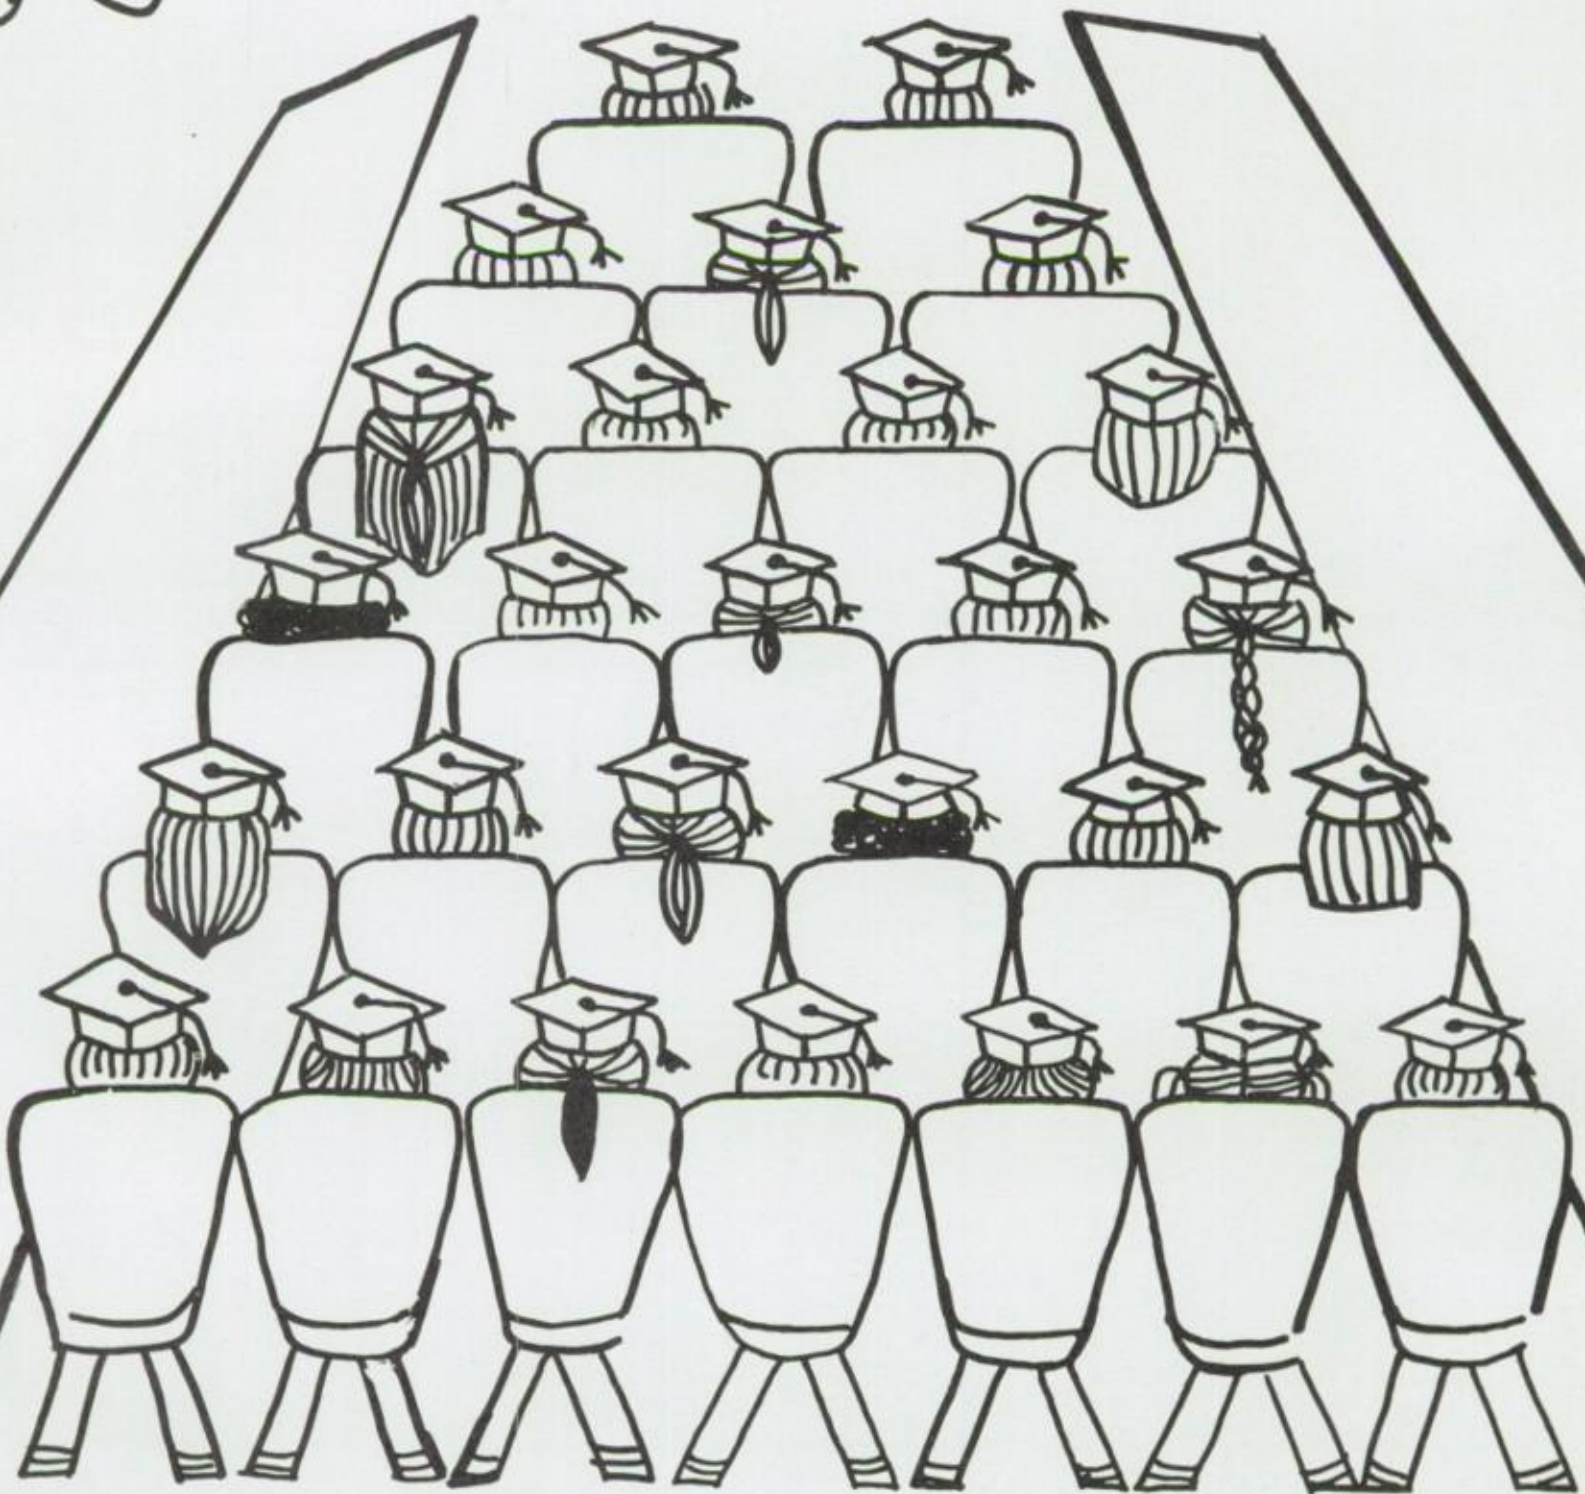

He who aims at excellence
Will be above mediocracy.
He who aims at mediocracy
Will be far short of it.

Why should we be in such desperate haste to succeed, and in such desperate enterprises?

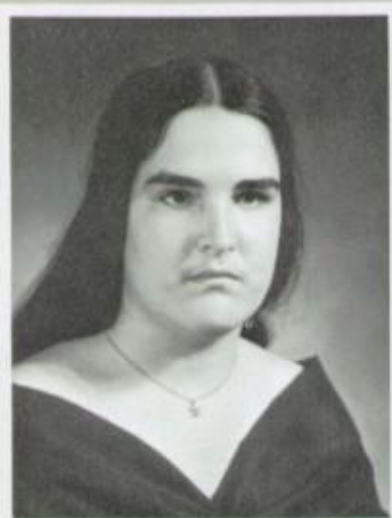

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

Oh-Oh. I think I forgot to shave this morning!

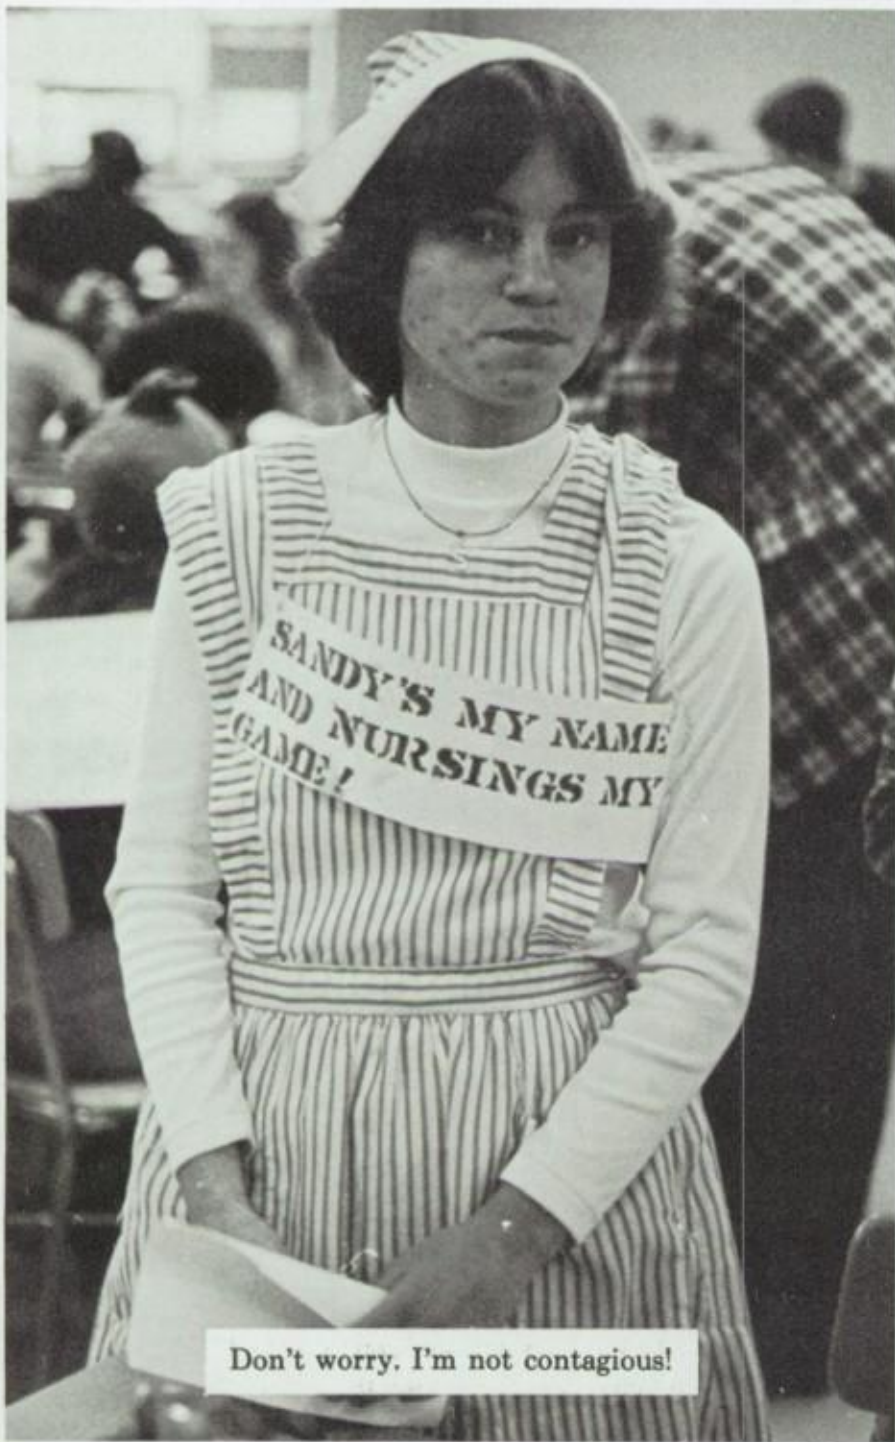

Rub-a-dub-dub. Three men in a tub.

Will someone please gong this act?

Well how 'bout it, big boy?

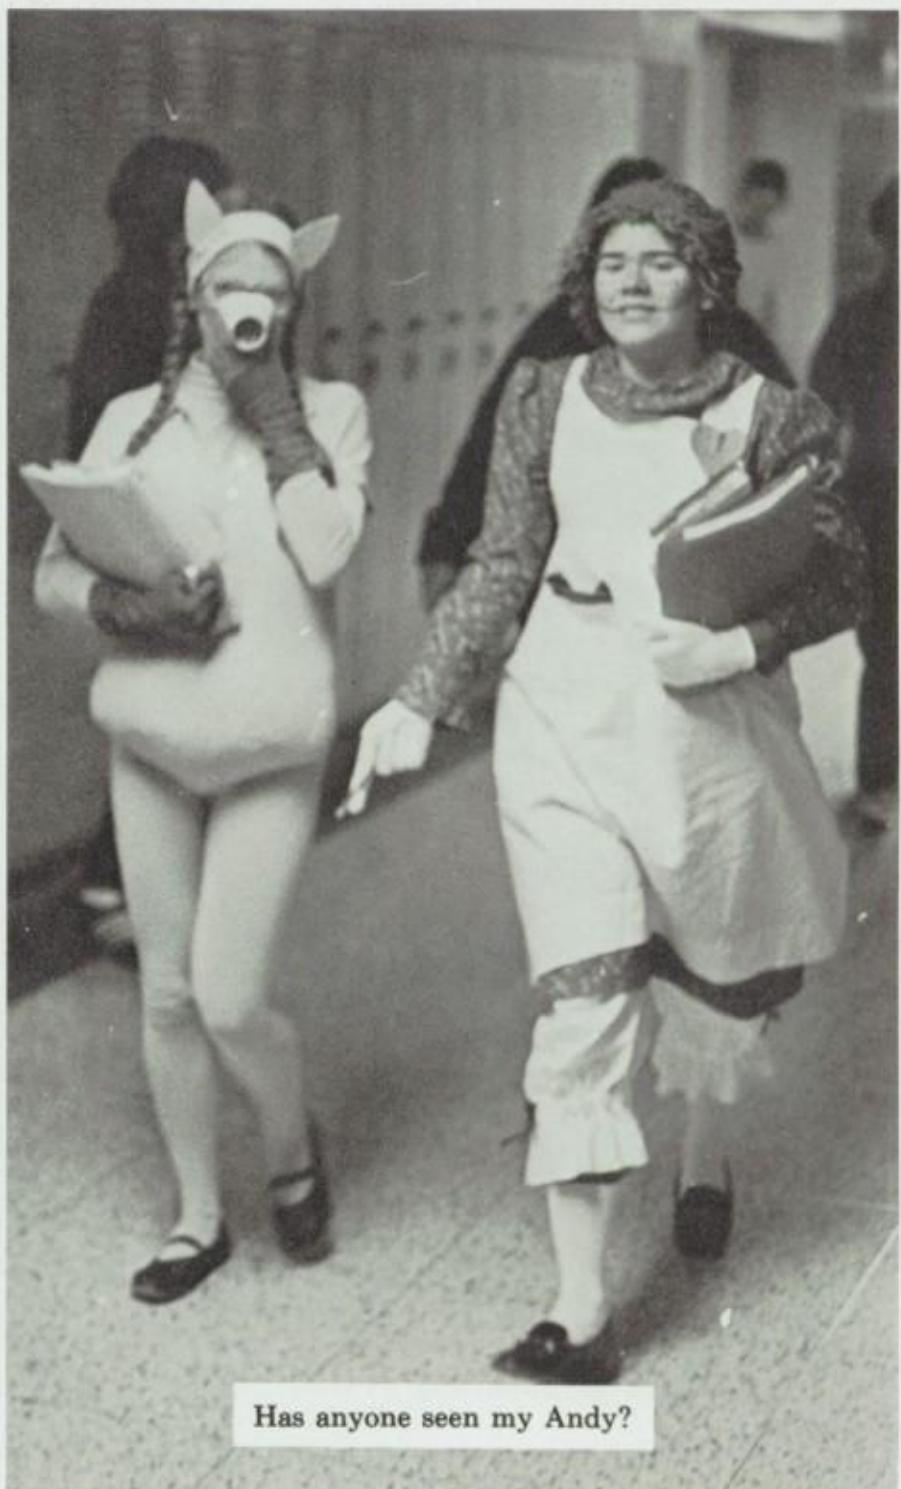

Don't worry. I'm not contagious!

What's the matter? Don't you like my costume?

I just washed my hair and can't do a thing with it!

Has anyone seen my Andy?

All Hallow's Eve

Where yesterday ghosts and goblins roamed on Halloween, this year KISS and other strange beings made an appearance at Peru Central.

"Muscles of Steel" was the winner of the "Dirty Sock Award".

The "Gong Show"

Peru held it's first "Gong Show" ... Through the cooperation of the administration and student body it turned out to be a complete success. Besides the talent displayed on the stage we had our own "Unknown Audience" to add to the festivities of the occasion. Good show!

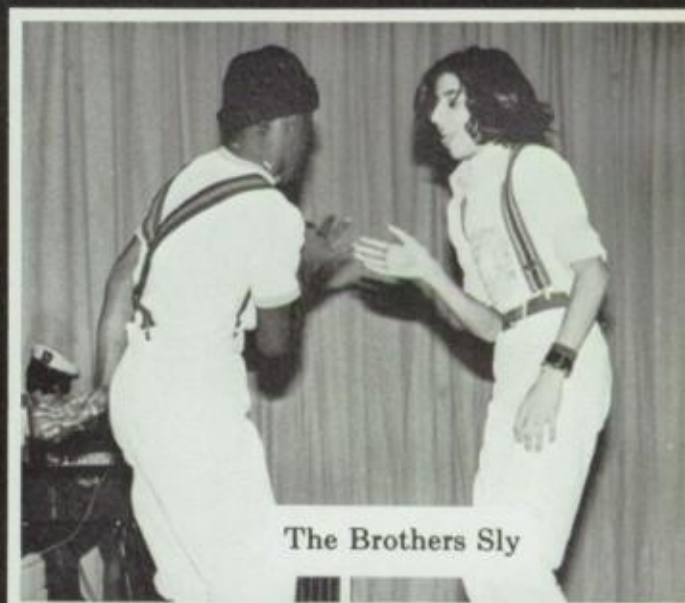

Sue Garrow was given 30 points and was declared the winner.

It seems that the soccer team is for real. Not only did they advance to the sectionals for the second straight year, but they managed to place five men on the first team of All-Stars including John Clark, Jeff Passno, Jeff Dickinson, Scott Mowrey, and Tony Antonelli. Surprisingly so, all this was accomplished with the help of rookie coach Zukowski and only five veteran players. Peru definitely has the potential athletic ability, along with the enthusiastic school spirit to build a soccer dynasty comparable to that of the fifties.

We Are The Champions

I've paid my dues, time after time.
I've done my sentence, but committed no crime.
And bad mistakes — I've made a few,
I've had my share of sand kicked in my face.
But I've come through.

We are the champions, my friend
And we'll keep on fighting til the end.
We are the champions, we are the champions,
No time for losers, 'cause we are the champions
Of the world.

I've taken my bows and my curtain call.
You've brought me fame and fortune and Everything that goes with it-
I thank you all.
But it's been no bed of roses, no pleasure cruise.
I consider it a challenge before the whole human race
And I'd never lose.

With nothing to go on but the encouragement of their school and an intense personal desire to prove themselves, the members of the Hockey team made their debut this year. Winning was not utmost in their minds, they simply wanted to prove that they could indeed function as a team and by doing so earn a place in the hearts of their fellow students. It seems that they did succeed and quite admirably at that. But they showed us something more. Courage.

MURPHY'S LAW OF PERVERSITY (The Yearbook Staff Motto)

Nothing is as easy as it looks. Everything takes longer than you expect. If anything can go wrong it will. If there is a possibility of several things going wrong, the one that will go wrong first will be the one that will do the most damage. Left to themselves, all things go from bad to worse. If you work on a thing long enough to "improve" it, it will break. If you think everything is O.K., you have surely overlooked something. Mother nature always sides with the hidden flaw. Mother nature is a bitch.

Dedicated to

Mrs. Rita Hatfield

This year has been sad for many seniors. They had expected to see Mrs. Hatfield's smiling face, but she retired at the end of last year. Successfully fighting the problem of low standards in English, she taught the students of Peru for sixteen years. Many seniors not only remember her as an excellent English teacher, but also as a wonderful human being. Her unique humor could make anyone in a bad mood feel better. We also respect her for her courage and fortitude. Even on the days when she didn't feel up to par, she would always manage a smile and a joke or two. We admire her for her devotion to not give up the fight. Life is very funny; we never realize how much we appreciate someone until they leave. I think I can speak for the senior class in saying how much we all miss you. God bless you always. — Joanne Grosskopf

In Appreciation of

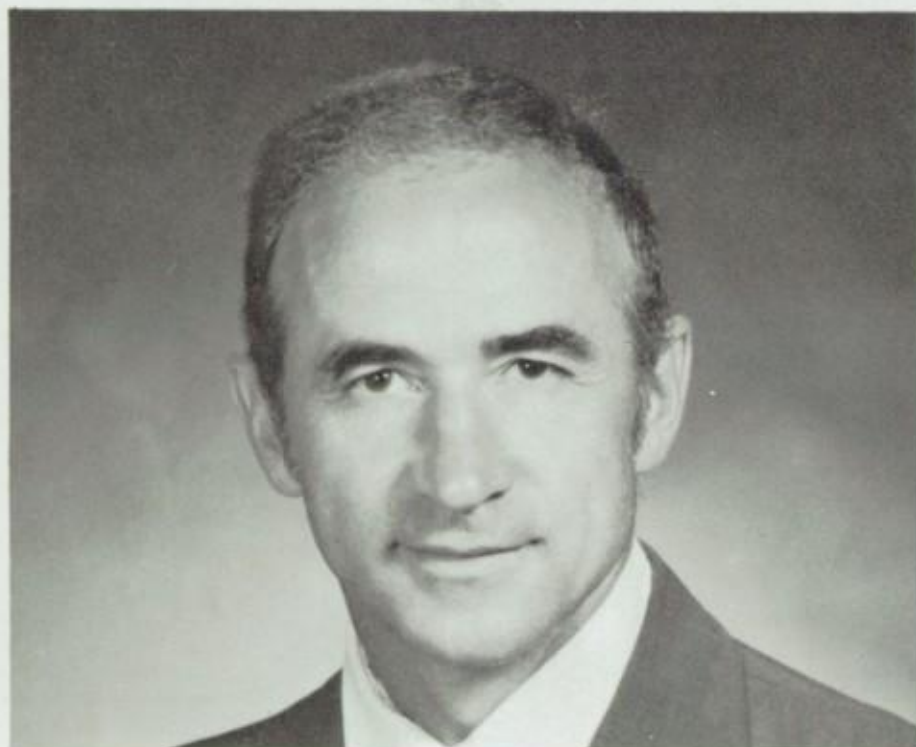

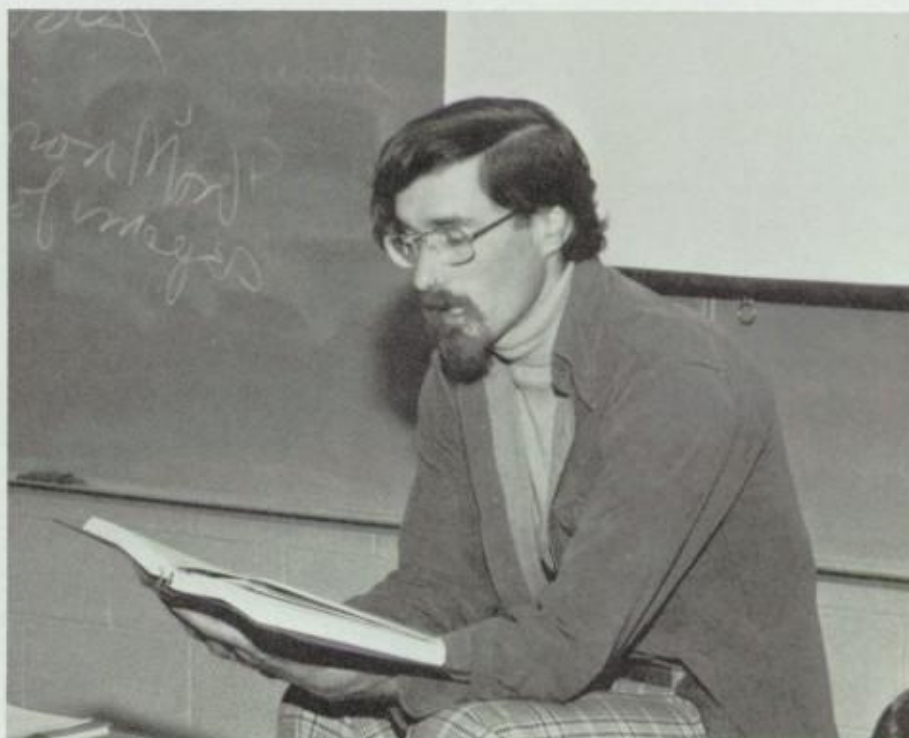

Mr. Wilke

Mr. Wilke, we would like to take this opportunity to bring you out from behind the scenes and into the open. You have worked "over and above the call of duty" with the band, chorus, jazz band, halftime shows, and musical productions; bringing joy to many. Patience, devotion, a certain kookiness, and a genuine love for your students and your work are only a few of the wonderful qualities which make you special. Mr. Wilke, thank you for being you.

Mr. McGovern

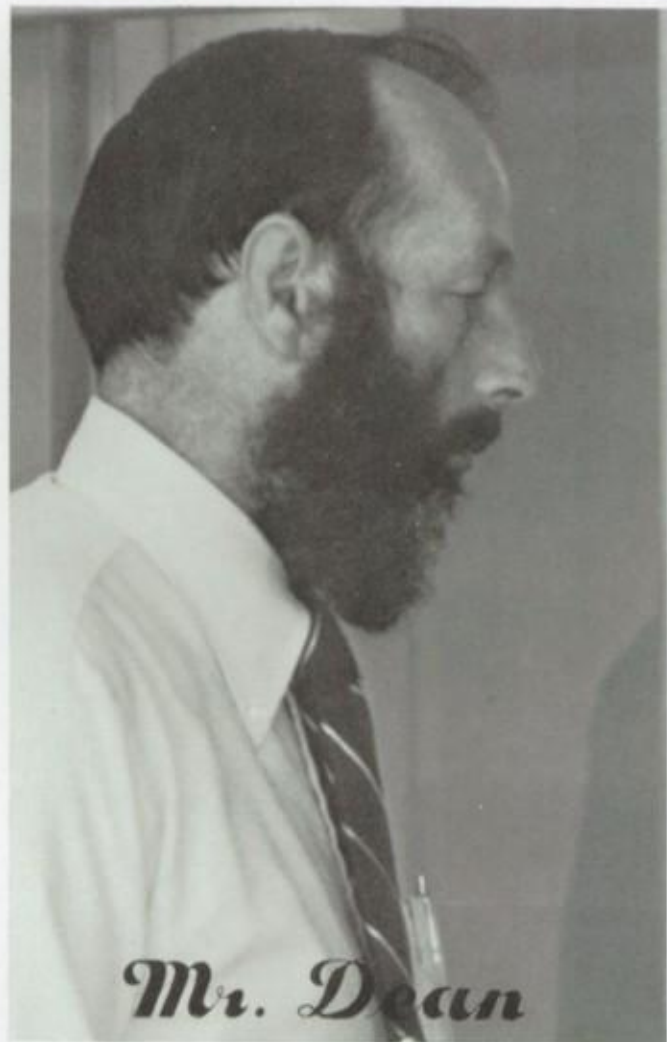

Mr. McGovern, it seems impossible to believe that you have ever done anything for the students since you are always at the end of the Junior High wing leaning against the door. But, without your unselfish support we would never have had any of those fantastic theatrical productions or winning track and soccer teams. In times of need, you have never let us down, neither in or out of class and we would feel as lost as Boo Radley if you ever did. Thanks.

Mr. Sharrow

Mr. Sharrow, your dedication, kindness and ever-present sense of humor has brought you close to our hearts. You have gone beyond your duties as a teacher. No matter what the cost was to yourself, you always stayed after school to give us extra help. Your patience has extended from teaching Biology to advising us in Interact and the National Honor Society. But most important, you treated us as friends instead of just students. Mr. Sharrow, from all the senior class, thank you.

In Appreciation of

Mr. Dean

How can we express our thanks in mere words? Mr. Dean, you have guided us through bake sales, the magazine drive, and the Junior Prom. Besides helping the whole class, you made each of us feel special. Thank you.

Mr. Oliver, you have lived through dangerous hours as one of the driver education teachers. Where did you get your patience? We would like to thank you for your support as one of our class advisors. Thanks.

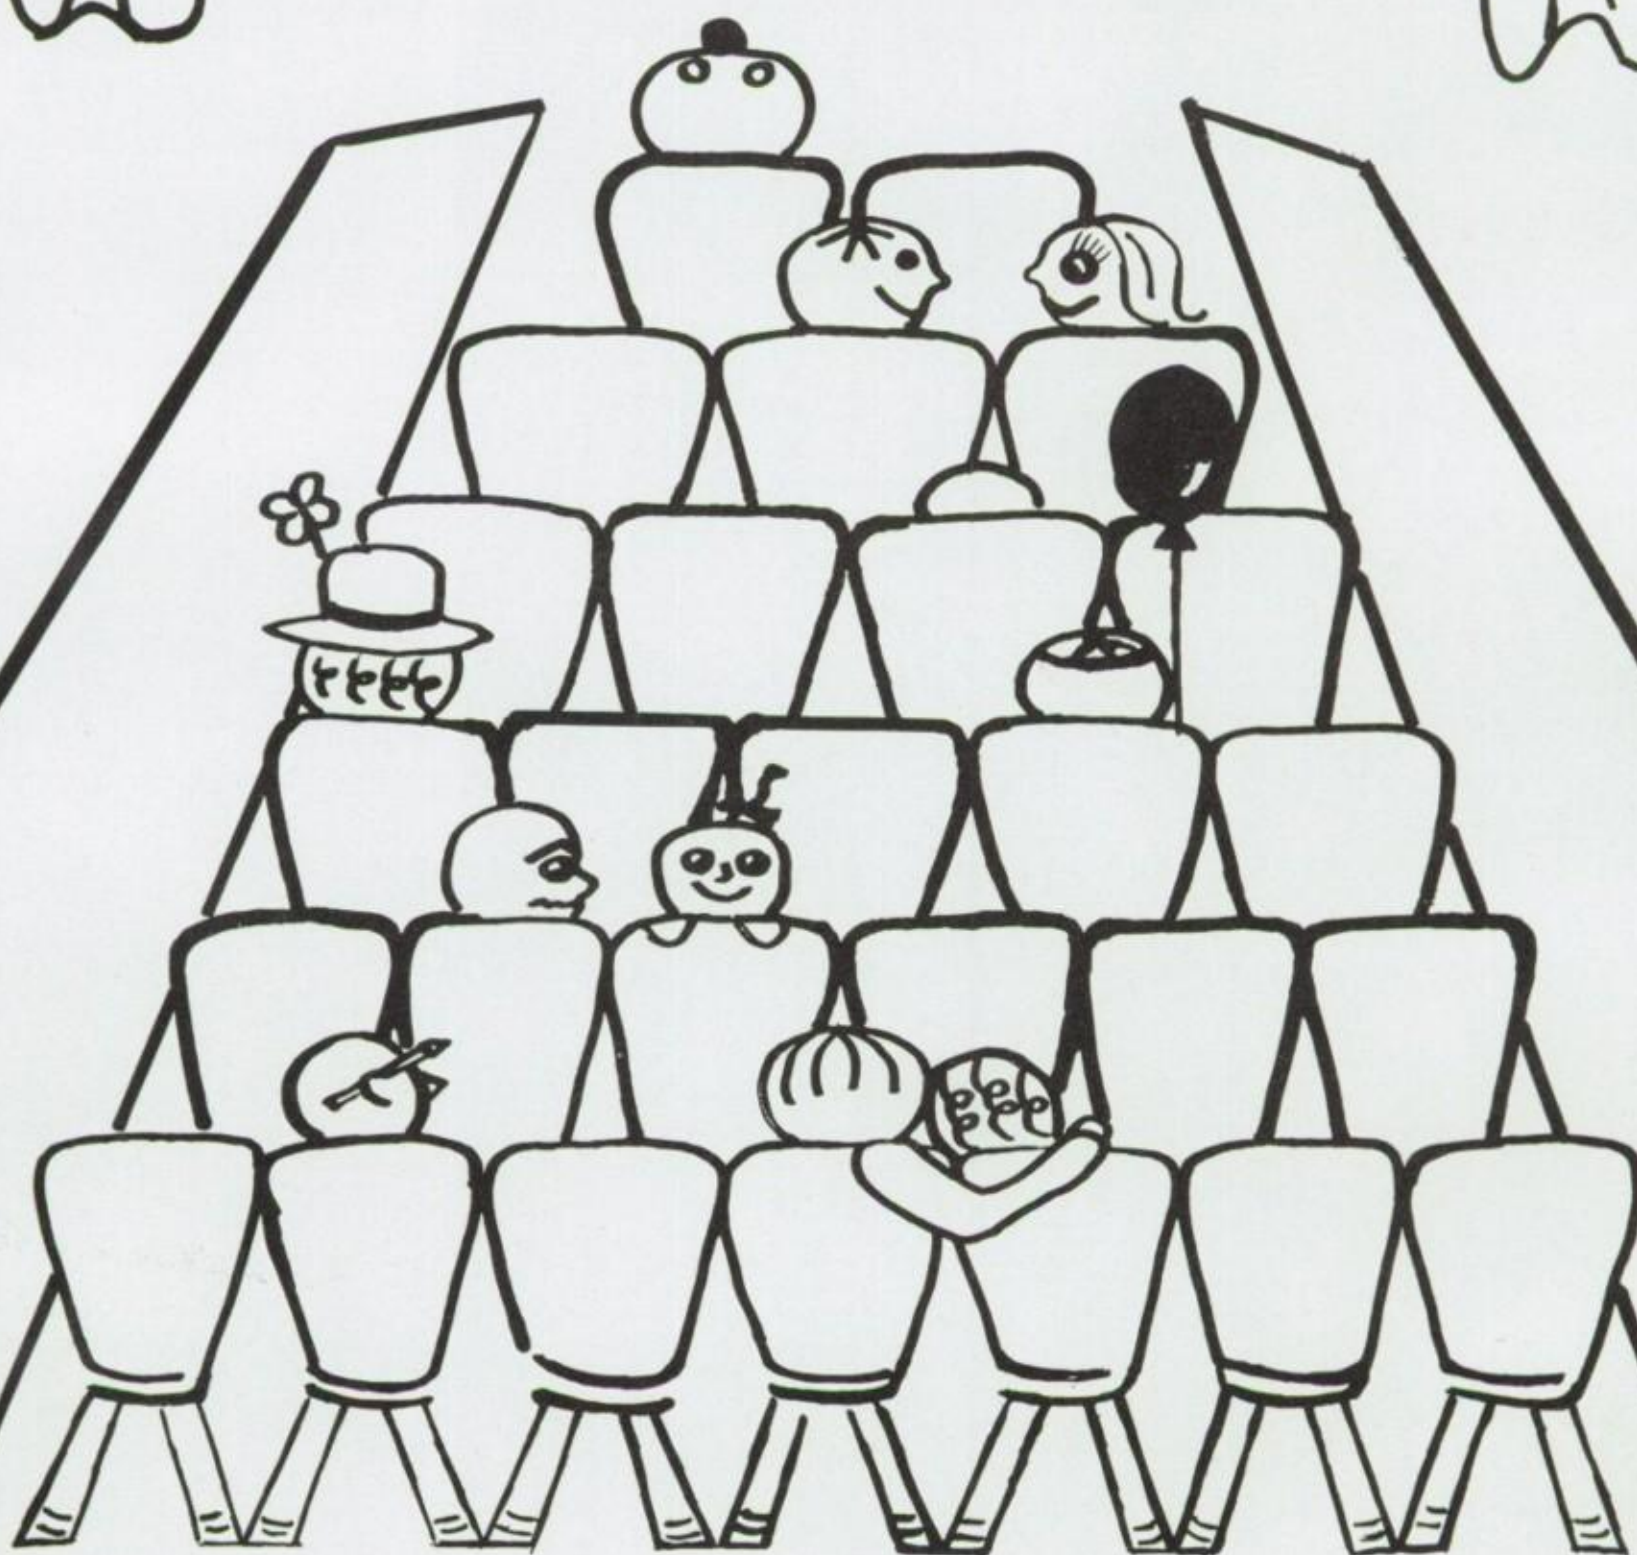

Mr. Oliver

In Memory of Elizabeth Mary Jackson

A single staff of music in treble clef, key signature of one flat (B-flat), and time signature of 4/4. The melody begins with a quarter note G4, followed by a dotted half note F#4. This is followed by two measures of whole notes: E4 and D4. The final measure contains a half note C4 tied to the next measure's half note C4, which is also tied to the following measure's half note B3. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

A line drawing of a car, possibly a station wagon, with a large, stylized figure emerging from the driver's side window. The figure has a large head and appears to be in a state of distress or panic. The car is parked on a road, and there is a large, stylized figure on the right side of the road, possibly a person or a large animal. The drawing is simple and sketchy, with a focus on the central figure emerging from the car.

Mrs. Catherine Longto

The Freshmen year is, well, exciting? Mrs. Longto is a math teacher, she can manage the budget. Wait a minute-What budget? We don't have any money yet. We have to get money. What can we do? We can't sell cards, the Sophomores are doing that. Candybars also. We'll have to have a bakesale, right Mr. Evans?

The best gift a student can give his fellow classmates is the gift of friendship. But what happens in the future when those classmates are no longer there to reminisce with as friends? In the summer to come and the years that follow, one can look back upon their Freshmen year and remember all those good things that happened; while, at the same time diminishing any thought that they have about the bad.

If each memory a person had was a good one, then each and every person's life would be more full of joy. The memory of an event of the past is like opening a new door into the future. With each and every memory that is reminisced a certain part of the inner being awakens and frees itself to the wide expanse of the individual's ability to find himself and the true meaning of his life.

And we the class of '78 hope that when you are feeling down and need a lift, that you will open up your 1978 yearbook and remember "US".

Sticky Stuff!

Beware! Zoo's Open!

Do you know what it is to be a child? It is to be something very different from the man of today. It is to have a spirit yet streaming from the waters of life, it is to believe in loveliness, to believe in belief; it is to be so little that the elves can reach to whisper, in your ear; it is to turn pumpkins into coaches and mice into horses, lowness into loftiness and nothing into everything . . . for each child has a fairy godmother in its soul!

Dance while your heart is light
Sing while your song is bright
Look at the stars in the evening
Look at the flowers in the morning
Call on an old friend today
And make a new one along the way
Listen to the birds sing
Listen to the bells ring
Dream of your life to be
Remember your sweet memories

Memories
Light the corners of my mind.
Misty water color memories
Of the way we were.
Scattered pictures
Of the smiles we left behind,
Smiles we gave to one another
For the way we were.
Can it be that it was all so simple then,
Or has time rewritten every line?
If we had the chance to do it all again,
Tell me would we? Could we?
Memories
May be beautiful, and yet,
What's to painful to remember
We simply choose to forget.
So it's the laughter
We will remember
Whenever we remember
The way we were;
The way we were

In the calm of the storm ...

I expect to pass this way but once; any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

We've only just begun
To live,
White lace and promises,
A kiss for luck and we're on our way.
Before the rising sun
We fly,
So many roads to choose,
We start out walking and learn to run.
Sharing horizons that are new to us,
Watching the signs along the way,
Talking it over just the two of us,
Working together day to day, together.
And when the evening comes
We smile,
So much of life ahead
We'll find a place where there's room to grow,
And yes we've just begun.
We've only just begun.

DA

to my sweet teacher. I glad have your class
this year. I hope I see you again next year.
Have a great summer
take care.
